

New Drives Would Cut Spending

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate defense critics are plotting new drives to cut arms spending, including curbing the Safeguard antimissile system, despite their largely unsuccessful efforts with the $20.7 billion military procurement authorization bill.

Leaders of the bipartisan coalition opposing the administration's missile defense proposal began laying their latest plans
even before Thursday's 58-9 Senate vote sent the compromise procurement bill to the White House.

Their new target is the $70 billion-plus defense appropriations measure scheduled for consideration next month.

But the efforts to amend the money bill by limiting Safeguard funds to research could be hampered by pressures to end the year-long congressional session and adjourn for the Christmas holidays.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., announced the plans to make new assaults not only on the Safeguard but on other items in the appropriations measure.

President Nixon is expected to sign within the next few days the authorization measure that drew some criticism during a three-hour final debate Thursday. The House approved it in just a few minutes by voice vote
Wednesday.

While this will clear the way
for consideration of appropriations legislation, Pentagon back-ers in the House appear to have set up a schedule that will make it difficult for Proxmire and the anti-Safeguard forces to mount a major fight.

The House Appropriations Committee, which must originate the money measure, still has to hear from Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird before sending the bill to the full House. It has set Dec. 1 as a tentative date for reporting it.

By the time it gets through the House and the Senate Appropriations Committee, it will be close to Christmas. This raises the prospect that action will have to be deferred until January on the bill which is to provide funds for the year that started last June 30.

But Democratic Leader Mike
Mansfield, asked about this possibility, said Thursday "I'd rather bring it up before Christmas and stay in it necessary to pass it."

Former Penal Workers Found Not Guilty

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) —
Two former penal farm employees, who were charged with abusing the civil rights of a prisoner, were found not guilty
Thursday night by a U.S. District Court jury.

The jury returned the verdict about 7 1/2 hours after receiving the case.

Charged were Edwin Lucas, 64, now a farmer in Mississippi, and Howard McCain, 60, of Luxora, now a factory worker.

Lucas and McCain were accused of violating the rights of Oscar Lee Phelps, 33, of Osceola July 24, 1965 while they were employed at the Mississippi County Penal Farm.

The government alleged that Phelps died after a beating, but Lucas and McCain were charged with a misdemeanor.
Maximum sentence for either man would have been one year in jail and a fine of $1,000 or both.

The case went to the jury shortly before 3 p.m. Thursday and the jury recessed for dinner at 6:45. The group resumed deliberations about 8:15. About an hour later, Jury Foreman
J. L. Proctor of Jonesboro told the court that the jury had reached a partial decision, but desired a partial explanation of instructions.

U.S. District Court Judge J.
Smith Henley reread several sections of the instructions and about an hour later the jury returned the verdict.

Both men shook the hands of the jurors as they filed out.

62 Miners Feared Lost in Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Sixty-two miners were believed killed today when cases of explosives apparently were set off accidentally 1 1/2 miles underground in the Buf-felfontein gold mine, the corporation that owns the mine announced here.

"Anyone down there at the time of the blast hasn't a hope in hell," said a spokesman for General Mining and Finance Corp. "It is highly unlikely that anybody caught in a blast like that could survive."

"They were sinking a shaft
and at the bottom of a shaft, there is nowhere to hide. The chances of their being sealed up but still alive."

"Half an hour before the blast," the spokesman said,
"nine or 10 cases of explosives were sent down the shaft. They must have exploded accidentally. It would not be a question of them detonating earlier than expected in a planned explosion because the men could not have drilled and plugged their holes."

The spokesman said the blast occurred in a shaft being sunk off another shaft 7,700 feet below the surface.

South Africa's worst mine disaster occurred in January 1960 when 436 workers were killed in the Coalbrook Borth Colliery.

Mansfield, Scott Back Nixon Plan

By BILL NEIKIRK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and his Republican counterpart, Hugh Scott, both previously critical of U.S. Vietnam policy, are sponsoring a resolution supporting President Nixon's efforts to end the war but also calling for a "mutually observed cease-fire."

The two Senate leaders would not reveal details of their resolution in advance of its introduction today but Mansfield said he and Scott worked it up to "generate support for the President."

An aide to Scott said the Senate resolution "requests the President to call on the government of North Vietnam to observe a mutually observed cease-fire."

The proposal comes one day after the House Foreign Affairs Committee approved 21-8 a resolution supporting Nixon's efforts to "negotiate a just peace."

The House measure makes no mention of a cease-fire.

Both Mansfield and Scott previously have proposed cease-fires, but without specifying
they should be "mutually observed."

While he has been mildly critical, Mansfield also has urged that Congress and the people give Nixon their backing.

Speaking of Nixon's efforts to end the war, Mansfield said in the Oct. 2 interview: "He sure as hell wants out. He is just finding the ways and means difficult."

Scott made what appeared to be a proposal for a unilateral cease-fire in Vietnam last month. But after the idea was denounced by Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird, Scott issued another statement saying that he intended to propose a mutual cease-fire.

The Pennsylvania senator
also found himself going counter to the administration during the summer when he proposed more troop withdrawals at a time Nixon was trying to fend off such pressures from Democrats. At that time he was the assistant Republican leader.

The Senate leaders decided to go with introduction of the resolution today, Scott's aide said, after getting 34 signatures early Thursday afternoon—with still more senators saying they wanted to cosponsor it.

The House resolution, largely fashioned by Rep. Jim Wright, D-Tex., and introduced three days ago, has the backing of 181 members.

Unions Agree on Low Cost Houses

By GREGG HERRINGTON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Three labor unions have agreed to build low-cost, prefabricated homes on an assembly line basis under a contract the government says provides a major start in overcoming the nation's housing shortage.

A three-bedroom house with one bath and all utilities would cost well under $10,000 according to a top official of the company that signed a contract with three building-trades unions Thursday to mass produce the structures.

George Romney, Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, hailed the contract as a significant start in reaching former President Lyndon B. Johnson's goal of 26 million new housing units in the next decade.

Romney's department Thursday also said another program aimed at both creating new housing and aiding the nation's poor was working.

HUD announced its venture of providing mortgage subsidies to help low-income families afford home ownership has passed the one-year mark with all the earmarks of success.

Some 16,500 families with average annual incomes of $5,000 own homes thanks to the program and the number is expected to triple by next June 30,
HUD officials reported.

The pre-fabricated home contract calls for carpenters, plumbers and electrical workers to join in eventually producing 2,500 homes a year for Prestige
Structures, Inc., of Charlotte,
Mich.

Thursday's agreement marked a reversal in what has been opposition by the unions to mass-produced housing. Increasing popularity of mobile homes is considered one factor in the unions' reversal.

GOP Leaders Want Agnew to Keep Firing

By BILL BOYARSKY

HONOLULU (AP) — Most Western Republican leaders attending a conference here say
the voters want Vice President Spiro T. Agnew to keep firing away at antiwar demonstrators.
But one GOP Governor thinks he should tone down his words.

Gov. David Cargo of New

the organizers of the Vietnam Moratorium Day are "a mess."

But he added: "I'm not so sure they are all intellectual snobs. I'm not so sure they all don't have anything to offer.
Young people have a lot to say.
They have noble ideas."

Cargo and other party leaders were interviewed Thursday at a session of the Western States Republican Conference at which
Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

Enemy Hits Many Allied Outposts

By PETER ARNETT
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — An estimated 100 Viet Cong guerrillas assaulted government outposts defending Saigon early today for the first time in 18 months, while other enemy forces made 68 rocket and mortar attacks across the country.

The shelling was the heaviest in more than two months. The South Vietnamese military commander for Saigon and 11 surrounding provinces said the sharply stepped up attacks marked the beginning of the enemy's winter campaign. "His American counterpart said, 'I don't think he's going to get very far with it.'"

Most of the attacks were in the Mekong Delta south of Saigon or in the central highlands.
Casualties included two Americans killed, six wounded, three Vietnamese civilians killed and 20 civilians and 18 soldiers wounded.

Viet Cong guerrillas attacked
two outposts manned by South Vietnamese combat police on the southern fringe of Saigon with AK47 rifles and hand-fired rockets shortly after midnight.
The posts are about a mile apart.

There apparently was no attempt to infiltrate into the city, as earlier reports had indicated; instead the mission was to destroy the outposts, and it did not succeed, although the posts were lightly defended.

One South Vietnamese combat policeman was killed and seven were wounded. The bodies of three barefoot guerrillas dressed in black pajamas were found alongside one of the posts.
Five assault rifles and one rocket launcher were found nearby.

It appeared the Viet Cong were local force guerrillas who live in the swamps on the southern edges of the city. The attack was typical of the Viet Cong guerrilla warfare during the early 1960s.

Government forces made no apparent attempt to pursue the guerrillas, but outposts were reinforced.

Meanwhile, about 150 North Vietnamese soldiers attacked a South Vietnamese militia outpost 30 miles northwest of Saigon and six miles from the Cambodian border early today.
Headquarters said 84 enemy soldiers were killed, 50 of them by American helicopter gunships and artillery, while South Vietnamese casualties were one killed and nine wounded.

Key U.S. officials in Washington said Thursday they expect North Vietnam to strengthen its forces in South Vietnam substantially by early next year so they can put new pressures on President Nixon for concessions.

Official sources in Saigon said
North Vietnamese infiltration into South Vietnam this year has been slightly over 100,000 men, a decrease of 30,000 to 40,000 from last year.

LANDSCAPING SUBJECT OF CLUB MEET

Hempstead County Agent Calvin Caldwell told the Shover Springs 4-H Club the best way to use shrubs for landscaping, when the club had a meeting on October 21. Paula Poindexter called the meeting to order, and Lanette Arrington led in singing, "Viva L'Amour."

Matthew 21 was read by Harold Sparks for the devotion. William Spradling reported on the calves he had entered in the Third District Livestock Show. Inspired by his name, Michael Holliday demonstrated ways to make door decorations for Christmas.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Darrell Dillon, the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Lanette Arrington and Harold Sparks led the 4-H Club Pledge and the Pledge of Allegiance. Since Halloween was fast approaching, Debbie Beard read a poem, "Haunted Houses."

After Lanette Arrington had sung "Arkansas," Mr. Caldwell spoke to the 29 in attendance. Sue Dillon called the roll, and plans were made for a Halloween Party and for a chili supper on November 15. Gary Poindexter was welcomed as a new member.

Several games were played with Lanette Arrington directing them. The Dillons served refreshments to the members and 6 guests, Mr. Caldwell, Mrs. Darrell Dillon and Valerie, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Holliday and Kevin. The next meeting will be at 7 p.m. November 18 in the Shover Springs Fellowship Hall.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Musical comedies, unlike wine, do not improve with age. The book of a 1933 Broadway hit, "Roberta," had the look of a period piece when presented in a 90-minute adaptation Thursday night on NBC as a Bob Hope special.

The program was made by putting cameras on a stage play with a theater audience, a procedure which does not help the TV viewer.

What stood up beautifully were those lovely Jerome Kern-Otto Marbach songs. With Michele Gee and John Davidson singing numbers like "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" and "The Touch of Your Hand," there were some fine moments. And there was also a great fashion show somehow connected with the story of an American boy inheriting a Paris dress designer's salon and a house and having a stormy romance with his new partner, Miss Lee.

Hope played the part that made him a star—a wise-cracking band leader.

All sorts of updating was undertaken. Hope's lines included jokes about Jackie Onassis, Tiny Tim and marijuana. The hero was supposed to be a quarter-back on the Los Angeles Rams.

It was, in spite of its shortcomings, interesting to watch.

"Debbie Reynolds and the Sound of Children," the preceding NBC special, was a light musical romp and a pleasant if hardly memorable hour. It teemed with cute children acting out a series of original songs based on the old rhyme starting "Monday's child is fair of face."

The kids swarmed over playgrounds, sang songs, fed pets. Debbie was a combination Pied Piper, field marshal and star-singer, dancing and troop-leading.

ABC has announced a major overhauling of its schedule starting Jan. 19. It will drop five shows, add four and relocate a number of others.

Canceled are "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town," "Music Scene," and "The New People"—all new shows—plus "Hollywood Palace" and "Dating Game."

It will move its Wednesday night movies to Monday nights and fill the two-hour period with variety hours starring Johnny Cash and Engelbert Humperdinck. Earlier on Wednesday it will have a new situation comedy, "The Nanny and the Professor."

"The Pat Paulsen Show" will start the Thursday night schedule and the "Survivors" will be moved to that night. "Love, American Style" will replace Jimmy Durante and the Lennon Sisters Friday nights and they will move to Saturday nights, following Lawrence Welk.

All the canceled shows have been at the bottom of the Nielsen rating lists.

One of the happiest feelings a gambler can have is when he combines a horse in the first race with every horse in the second race in daily doubles and then sees his horse win. Now he can stand at the rail for the second race and yell, "Come on, Everybody!"

South had the same feeling about his diamond finesse at trick five. He couldn't have cared less about its failure or success.

He ruffed the club lead in dummy and was happy to draw trumps with only two leads. Then he cashed his king of diamonds, led a low diamond and covered West's 10 with dummy's jack.

The finesse won, so South lost no diamonds. Later on, he tried the spade finesse in an effort to make seven but that one lost.

Suppose the diamond finesse had lost? East would have been on lead with the choice of leading away from his king of spades or giving South a ruff and discard by playing a club. Either would get rid of one of South's spades; the other would go on the long diamond and the slam would make.

For those who want to look on the dark side of life, we want to point out that West would have been better advised if he had opened a spade. This would set up one sure spade trick for the defense and South would not have been happy when he got around to playing the diamond suit.

He might well have made the correct decision. We'll never know but we can be sure that South would have put in a lot of thought before he got through.

BABES IN LAP-LAND

Dear Helen: Is this some sort of trend? I mean men sitting on women's laps, instead of vice versa?

On almost all the interview shows I see stars like Johnny Carson, Merv Griffin, Mike Douglas, Jimmy Dean, etc. plopping down on the ladies' laps; but you almost never see this in reverse on TV interviews.

I suppose it would be somewhat difficult to interview a gal objectively while she is resting on your knees but, on the other hand, if I sat on a girl's lap, I'd be afraid she would act motherly which is the last thing I'd want!

Beatles' Star Now Turns to Singing

LONDON (AP) — Ringo Starr, the Beatles' drummer, is turning singer on a solo record of his favorite standards, including such old hits as "Night and Day."

John Lennon, Paul McCartney and George Harrison also plan individual albums, or are thinking about it. But Mavis Smith of Apple, the Beatles' company, gave this assurance to any anxious fans:

"It doesn't mean the Beatles are breaking up or anything like that. It's just that they like to do some things on their own."

Ringo said the songs he's recording "are songs that I associate with nice things, and that is why I chose them."

Among his selections are "Autumn Leaves," "I'll Be Seeing You," and "Love is the Sweetest Thing."

An album by George Harrison is still in the early idea stage. "I thought of doing an album of my own mainly just to get rid of all the songs I've got stacked up," he said. "I've got such a backlog, and at the rate of doing two or three on a Beatles album (where Lennon-McCartney songs are much more numerous), I'm not even going to get the ones I've done out for three or four years."

Says Consumer Legislation Is Farcial

WASHINGTON (AP) — Consumer advocate Ralph Nader has charged President Nixon's proposed consumer protection legislation is "farcial in part and deceptive in the remainder."

Nader launched his attack Thursday by releasing drafts of two administration bills and the text of a letter he was sending to Mrs. Virginia Knauer, President Nixon's special assistant on consumer affairs.

Mrs. Knauer could not be reached for immediate comment.

The letter declared a bill giving statutory standing to the existing White House Consumer Office "adds little to what the office can do presently."

Nader also condemned a proposal in the bill to include representatives of business on a 20-member consumer advisory council to be appointed by the President.

"Do you know of any consumer representatives on any of the dozens of industry advisory committees that are attached to various government agencies?" Nader asked, and then answered: "There are none."

He said in his letter industries obviously would be happy to "advise and assist your office. The tenor of this entire bill suggests a relationship to the consumer movement similar to the labor movement a few decades ago."

Nader said it would be wrong to establish a Consumer Protection Division within the Justice Department as the President proposes because the department already represents agencies the new division is supposed to monitor.

He said a second bill, the Consumer Product Testing Act of 1969, "is a step backwards and a serious one at that." Nader contended the measure is vague and gives industrial and commercial standards groups exactly what they wanted.

"This bill would lead to quasi-official status for private standards groups, an undermining of the policy of governmental standards arrived at independently for public health, safety and credibility," he said.

As a postscript, Nader said the administration had consulted with trade groups in drawing up its proposed legislation but

Picks Teams Favored in State Play

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas has its sights set on the Dec. 8 meeting with Texas, but Frank Broyles knows the only way to get there unscathed is by playing one game at a time. It may sound trite, but it's true. Even Rice, with its 1-5 record, cannot be overlooked.

The fourth-ranked Razorbacks are 28-point favorites to make Rice their 13th consecutive victim Saturday, but Broyles is quick to note the Owls' performance last week against Texas Tech.

Tech, the only team with a chance to catch Arkansas and Texas in the Southwest Conference race, trailed Rice 14-0 before rallying for a 24-14 victory.

Quarterback Bill Montgomery returned to action last week and sparked the Razorbacks to a 35-13 victory over Texas A&M.

No. 13 should be lucky for the Razorbacks.

Henderson and Harding, believe-it-or-not, will play for the lead in the Arkansas Intercollegiate conference Saturday night at Searcy.

Both are unbeaten in league play which is a complete reversal for Harding. The Bisons did not win a conference game in 1967 or 1968.

Henderson quarterback Tommy Hart has gotten the job done all season long. We believe he will again.

Nicklaus Has Big Lead in Hawaii

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer

HONOLULU (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, threatening to make the fall tour his personal showcase, carried a whopping four-stroke lead into the second round of the $125,000 Hawaiian Open Golf tournament today.

Big Jack, who has won both of the fall tournaments he has entered, established a course record with a blistering 63 on the 7,020-yard, par 72 Wai'alae Country Club layout Thursday.

It was accomplished in the face of blustery trade winds that reached gusts of more than 40 miles an hour and sent most of the rest of first round scores soaring.

His leading margin was the biggest of the season after 18 holes and had his fellow pros talking to themselves.

"If he keeps on putting like that, you just can't beat him," said Billy Casper, one of the pre-tourney favorites who had an opening 73, 10 shots back.

Ken Still and Dave Stockton were tied for second with 67s, while Jack McGowan and John Schroeder had 68s. The group at 69 included Bill Johnson, Grier Jones, Randy Wolf and Larry Ziegler.

Arnold Palmer was in a large group at 70. Leading money winner Frank Beard and masters champion George Archer each had a 71. Lee Trevino and U.S. Open champion Ollie Moody posted 74s and PGA titleholder Ray Floyd had a 75.

Nicklaus, who has won $48,000 in his last two starts, the Sahara and the Kaiser, was grim-faced, tight-lipped and in deep concentration on his morning round.

"You concentrate more in the wind," Nicklaus said. "If the wind hadn't blown, I'd have been closer to the hole. But from where I was, I couldn't possibly have scored better."

After each shot, however, he was a relaxed and smiling man, talking with the galleries, gesturing and joking.

"Unbelievable," he said after running in a 45 foot putt on his 15th hole. One the next one, he sank a 50-footer and looked positively embarrassed.

"Isn't this fun?" he asked the gallery.

Big Jack—slimmed down to 190 pounds on a two-month diet and now big in ability more than size—didn't miss a green, didn't make a bogey and didn't miss a putt more than 15 feet.

Simpson Is Making Pro Football Marks

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—O.J. Simpson has to go a long way to match Jim Brown's marks as a pro football runner, but he already is talking about following in Brown's footsteps as an actor.

Simpson, the Southern California All-American who still is trying to earn the estimated $325,000 three-year contract he signed with Buffalo of the American Football League this year, got a taste of the acting life on a recent television series. He apparently liked it.

"Brown told me it's a good business, a good life and that he was glad to see me get into it," said the 22-year-old halfback who goes against the New York Jets in New York Sunday.

Brown, the all-time leading rusher and touchdown scorer in pro football, retired in 1965, still in his prime, after taking the bumps and bruises for nine years. He went into acting and has made a name and plenty of money for himself in movies.

Simpson, only a rookie in pro football, isn't ready for that yet, at least until he proves himself in the pros. He realizes that football can open the biggest hole for him to dash through into movieland.

He played a football player on a CBS's television drama recently.

Simpson also said he had taken a screen test for movies to play a part other than that of a football player "and that's what I wanted. I'll do a movie during the off season and a couple of TV shows."

Missouri Has to Halt Steve Owens

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

"I'm never seen anyone like him. He's the best I've seen."

The speaker was Missouri Coach Dan Devine and the subject was Steve Owens, Oklahoma's slashing tailback.

And, there's a reason why the coach of the No. 9-ranked Tigers was cringing a little when he spoke of the Sooners' 6-foot-2, 215-pound one-man battering ram.

Missouri has to stop Owens—something that no other team has managed this year—and the No. 20 Sooners at Columbia Saturday to remain in serious contention for the Big Eight championship and a trip to the Orange Bowl.

The Tigers are tied with surprising Kansas State and Nebraska, all with 3-1 marks, for first place while Oklahoma is only a half-game off the pace at 2-1.

"I would hope we could stop Owens," said Devine. "Kansas State did a few times. We'll go with what we have and just hope we can stop him."

But the odds are against it. Owens, who ripped Missouri for 176 yards in a 28-14 victory last year, warmed up for this week's game by carrying the ball 53 times, one shy of the major college record, for a league record 248 yards and four touchdowns in a 37-14 coast past Iowa State last week.

And, the Tigers aren't blessed with an abundance of talent to stop him. Missouri's defense was far from adequate in a 41-38 squeaker over K-State last week, yielding a whopping 394 yards to passer Lynn Dickey.

Missouri, however, has a fine runner of its own—Joe Moore, who ranks third nationally with 184 rushes for 904 yards in seven games—and a dandy quarterback in Terry McMillan.

Kansas State and Nebraska, tied with Oklahoma as the No. 20 team, meanwhile, shouldn't have much trouble holding on to their share of first. The Wildcats, 5-2 over-all, travel to Oklahoma State, 1-2 and 3-3, while Nebraska, 5-2 over-all, plays host to Iowa State, 1-3 and 3-4.

In other games...it's Baylor at No. 2 Texas, South Carolina at No. 3 Tennessee, No. 4 Arkansas at Rice, Washington State at No. 6 Southern California, and No. 8 Notre Dame at Pittsburgh.

Games matching teams in the second 10 are Michigan State at No. 10 Purdue, Mississippi State at No. 11 Auburn, Alabama at No. 12 Louisiana State at night, No. 16 Georgia vs. No. 13 Florida at Jacksonville, Fla., No. 14 Stanford at Washington, UT-Chattanooga at No. 17 Mississippi, No. 18 Michigan at Illinois and Utah State at No. 19 Air Force.

No. 5 Penn State and No. 7 UCLA are idle this week.

Navy, 1-6 and still reeling from last week's 47-0 trouncing by Notre Dame, travels to Miami, Fla., in tonight's only major college action.

Texas and Arkansas, each 6-0,

Predictable Favored at Gardena

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The winner of Saturday's Gardena Stakes looks Predictable on past form. But 2-year-old fillies, like any other thoroughbred, don't always follow past form.

Predictable, from Wheatley Stable, is the early favorite for the Gardena but she should get plenty of opposition, with a field of 11 juvenile misses expected for 1:16-mile test.

If all 11 start, the Gardena will have a record gross value of $200,444, with a record $129,267 to the winner.

In another big race Saturday, a field of eight is shaping up for the $50,000-added, 1:16 mile Roamer Handicap at Aqueduct.

Predictable earned her favorite's role in the Gardena with an impressive four-length victory in the Selma at Laurel.

Expected to oppose her are Har-Bar Ranch's Fast Attack, Greenacres Farm's Sunny Sal, James Cox Brady's Meritus, Walter M. Jefford Jr.'s Zamora, C.V. Whitney's Hall Hall, Louis Toriano's Noseemole'sn Stephen A. Calder's Office Queen, Mrs. Russell L. Reineman's Sweet Mist, Morris Stolz's Daring Step and Hayman and Fuentes' Dixie Wind.

Mrs. Henry Obre's North Flight, second to Hawaii in the Man O'War Stakes at Belmont Park, gets highweight of 126 pounds for the Roamer. His stiffest opposition is expected to come from Elmendorf's Oil Power, 121, winner of the Hawthorne Derby and Lawrence Realization, and Meadow Stable's Hydrologist, 120, the Discovery Handicap winner.

face little threat to their co-leadership in the Southwest Conference. The Razorbacks, who have rolled up 226 points while yielding only 40, face a team that has managed only one victory in six games, while Texas' crunching running backs should pulverize winless Baylor.

Southern California, unbeaten in six games and leading the Pacific-8 with a 3-0 mark, is an overwhelming favorite against Washington State, 1-6, as is Notre Dame, 5-1-1, against Pittsburgh, 3-4.

Ohio State is expected to breeze past Wisconsin—a team that hasn't beaten the Buckeyes since 1918—in ringing up its 21st straight victory and holding on to the Big 10 lead.

Ferguson Hurls Shoats to Victory

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Quarterback Joe Ferguson, the object of a hotly contested recruiting battle, tossed three touchdown passes to lift the Arkansas freshmen to a 28-6 victory over North Texas State's freshmen here Thursday night.

Ferguson, of Shreveport, La., completed 13 of 31 passes for 255 yards. He found Jack Eltinger for scoring strikes of 34 and 39 yards and completed a 44-yard touchdown toss to Mike Reppond. Kirby Clements scored the Shoats' other touchdown on a two-yard run.

Arkansas got on the scoreboard in 22 seconds. Larry Edy returned the opening kickoff 53 yards and on second down Ferguson hit Eltinger for 34 yards and the touchdown.

Clements' plunge gave Arkansas a 14-0 lead early in the fourth period. Between their first and second touchdowns, the Shoats missed six field goal attempts.

Ferguson hit Eltinger for 39 yards and a touchdown with 8:21 left in the game and minutes later found Reppond all alone for another score.

North Texas State scored with less than two minutes remaining on a one-yard plunge by Tommy Davis.

Colonels Turn It on in Last Quarter

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pittsburgh Pipers tapered off in the last quarter while the Kentucky Colonels turned it on but both won Thursday night and continued to chase the Indiana Pacers in the American Basketball Association's Eastern Division.

The Pipers, led by John Brisker's 33 points, beat Miami 133-127 despite being outscored by the Floridians 36-31 in the final period. The Colonels used a balanced attack and a 41-point barrage in the last quarter to crush the Denver Rockets 145-119.

Pittsburgh remained 1 1/2 games behind the idle Pacers while Kentucky was a game behind Indiana. Pittsburgh has a slight edge in the all-important percentage column, however.

In the National Basketball Association, Atlanta nipped Chicago 124-122 and San Francisco buried Cincinnati 130-109.

The Pipers trailed 96-95 at the end of the third period but then Stew Johnson tapped in a basket to put the Pipers ahead to stay. The victory, their fourth straight, boosted the Pipers' record to 5-2.

Denver led 66-65 at halftime but the Colonels, sparked by George Tinsley and Wayne Chapman, a pair of substitutes, piled up 79 points in the second half. A balanced Colonels attack saw seven men in double figures. Louis Dampier led the Kentucky effort with 26 points but the Rockets' Larry Jones was the game's high scorer with 29. Kentucky is now 7-3.

Bobcats to Play Camden Lincoln Here

BY RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Having already won more games in '69 than in the last two seasons combined, the Hope Bobcats tonight host the Camden Lincoln Tigers in a 4-AA Western Divisional game at 7:30 P.M. in Hammons Stadium.

It is a morale game for Hope, after convincing wins over Magnolia 21-0 and Camden 19-7 got the Cats on the winning track following the 29-0 nightmare defeat at Fairview.

Easily the Bobcats are favorites, but are sure to be off the form of the last two victories with the injuries to backs Artis Martin, Gary Jones, and Thomas Lloyd. All will be able to dress out, and Coach Ronnie Higgins hopes an early lead will prevent the starters from playing too much and risking injury.

Lincoln has improved greatly over the last two weeks (they are still 1-7 overall) with a win over Eudora Johns 22-8 and a hard-fought 12-6 loss last Friday at Smackover.

Everyone knows Lincoln will pass, but they could try to surprise with some razzle-dazzle offensively to try for an early lead. It is a good test of the Bobcat defense before covering Nashville's quick runners and Arkadelphia's long passes in the next two games.

And as Hope hopes to put this one away early, all ears will be highly-trained toward Arkadelphia for the result of the Fairview-Arkadelphia Slugfest. It is Fairview's point of no return, but a victory coupled with a final day win at Malvern would give the Cards the 4-AA West title after losses to Camden and Magnolia, whom both the Bobcats and Arkadelphia have beaten.

Counting on the fact that Hope will not be suffering from a severe letdown and that things go as they should, the Cats will roll over Lincoln 34-6. And with a note of prayer, this writer calls for Arkadelphia's passing game to upend Fairview 22-20.

KXAR will broadcast the Hope-Lincoln game live from Hammons Stadium with pre-game activities beginning around 7 p.m.

50th Reunion for Grid Team

BOSTON (AP)—The 14 surviving players and two coaches of Harvard's 1919 Rose Bowl football team will hold a 50th reunion tonight at a dinner at the Harvard Club of Boston. The Crimson defeated Oregon 7-6 Jan. 1, 1920, in Harvard's only trip to Pasadena.

dating back to within five years of Hope's incorporation in 1875.
1899 - Star of Hope founded as a weekly by Claude Mc-Corkle; converted to an evening daily Jan. 1, 1920, by his son, Ed. McCorkle, publishing until the 1929 consolidation.

The opposition line:
1880 - Hope News founded by Lowry Brothers.

1883 - Sold to Withers & Johnson, name changed to Hope Telegraph.

1883 - Later in same year resold to Claude McCorkle and renamed Hope Mercury.

1884 - Sold to James H. Betts, who named it Hope Gazette, under which name it was published continuously until 1922, published by Betts, J.L. Tullis, and Col. W.W.
Folsom the last-named dying in 1916.

1916 - Purkins & Gates bought the weekly Gazette and made it a companion paper to their new daily, Arkansas Evening Herald
- but both papers suspended in 1922.

1926 - Plant was revived by Curtis Cannon as the weekly
Hempstead County Review.

1927 - Cannon sold plant to D.A. Gean, who established the morning Hope Daily Press.

1929 - C.E. Palmer and A.H.
Washburn consolidated The Star and the Press as Hope Star, with Palmer as president and Washburn secretary-treasurer.

1937 - Following Mr. Palmer's death Mrs. Palmer became president.

1969 - With Mrs. Palmer's retirement from Star Publishing Co. Washburn became 76 per cent owner and president - balance 24 per cent being held by Texarkana Newspapers, Inc.

Thursday Game Still Going Friday

CHICAGO (AP) - If you want to get technical, the Chicago Bulls-Atlanta Hawks National Basketball Association game played Thursday night is still going on Friday.

The game-ending buzzer apparently never sounded with the teams on the floor, and therein lies one of the wildest windups in pro basketball seen in Chicago Stadium. The 9,087 fans still probably don't know what went on. And they aren't alone.

Atlanta, Western Division
leader, was awarded a 124-122 victory which Bulls General Manager Pat Williams said he would protest to Commissioner Walter Kennedy.

The Hawks wiped out a 17-point deficit in the last nine minutes with Lou Hudson hitting the tying basket for 122-122 in the final 15 seconds and sinking two free throws for 124-122 in the last five seconds.

The Bulls took the ball out of bounds and with one second showing on the clock, Clem
Haskins took a shot. The Bulls' Tom Boerwinkle jumped into the air and tapped the ball through the hoop.

Referee Bob Rakel said he had heard the buzzer as the shot was in flight and, since another player touched it after the buzzer sounded, the basket did not count.

The other referee, Jack Madden, said he didn't hear the buzzer. Both officials queried Timekeeper James Seery who said:

"The buzzer has not gone off
- there is one second to go."

Bulls Coach Dick Motta said that after Boerwinkle pushed Haskin's shot in, "I watched Rakel raise his arm and then motion downward signifying a good basket."

"The Atlanta players, also thinking it good, then asked for time out to set up a final shot," said Motta. "But at this point Coach Richie Guerin raced onto the floor and grabbed both referees."

"For some strange reason Rakel then told me he heard the buzzer go off even though Madden said it had not."

California, with an area of 158,693 square miles, is the third largest state in the Union.

St. Louis Has Foes Singing the Blues

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
St. Louis' newfound power play continues to have its National Hockey League foes singing the blues.

The West Division leaders, next-to-last in the league last season in power play goals, scored three times while Detroit was shorthanded Thursday night in snapping the Red Wings' four-game victory streak
5-2.

STRIVE for PEACE

"Try to be at peace with all men" (Hebrews 12:14).

We are forever talking of peace, but we continue to quarrel. We think we must fight. We demonstrate with hate and destruction as our motivating force. How shall I change it? What is my next step? How do I become a real peace maker?

The Scriptures clearly give the message. "Thou shalt love thy brother."

Then, if I am serious, I must answer. I must put love in place of hate. I must frankly face the fact that I actually hate or despise another man who also is a son of God. That is my sin.

Immediately I must look into his life and discover some good

... I must love him.

Do not hate a Democrat, or Republican, or a Black man, or a White man, or a Jew, Catholic, or Protestant.

Other people love those guys, why can't I?

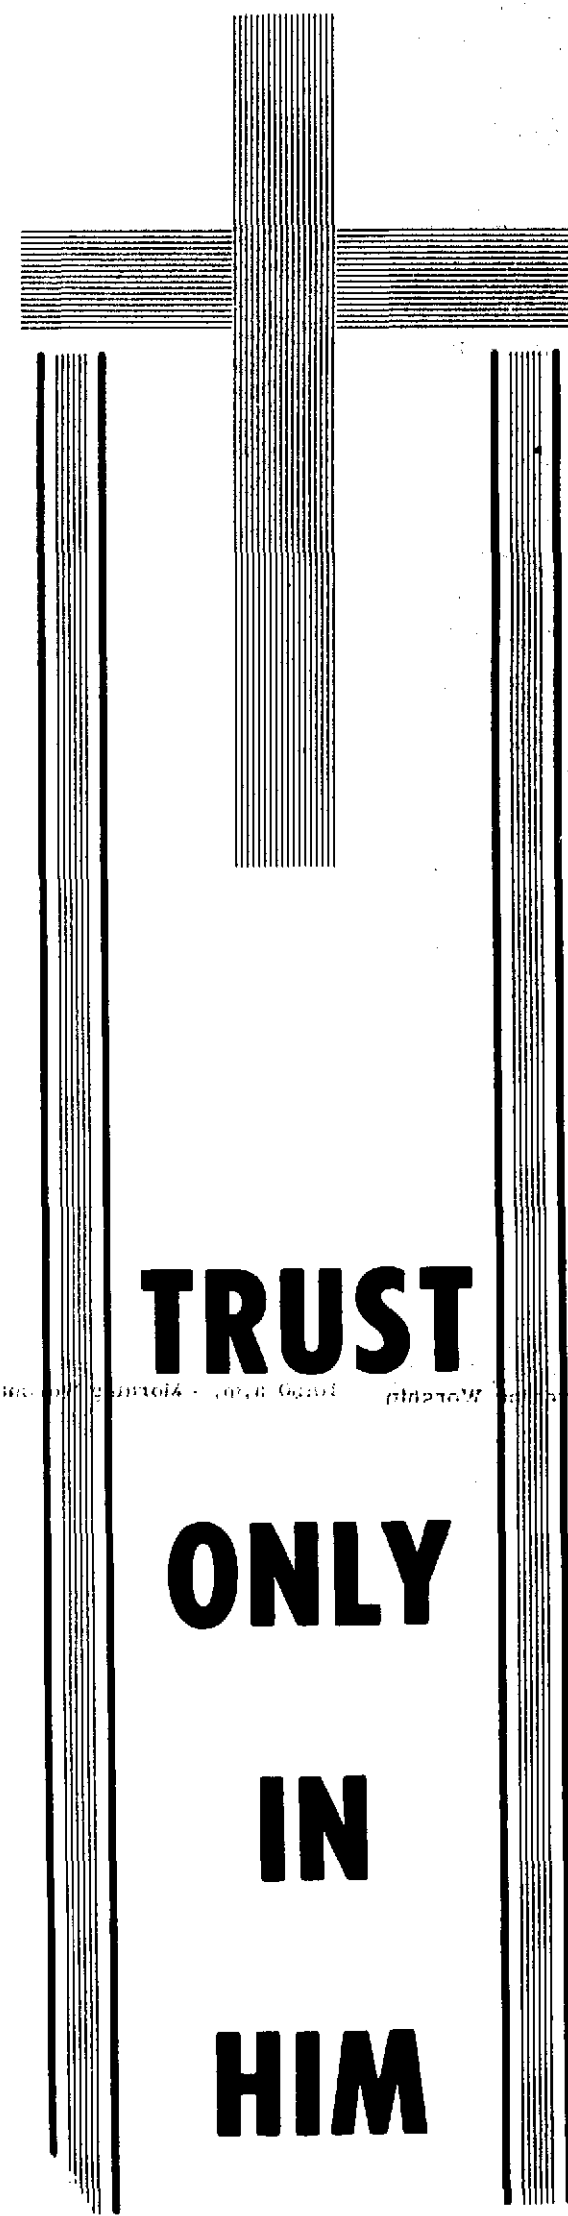

I too must discover some good which I don't know about, if I am to set myself free of hate.

Then, I must seriously set out to live

Hebrews 12:14.

SMOG STACK may clear the air. Scientists in the Magdalena Mountains near New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology send up a device to blast a strong electrical charge into a cloud. They hope their experiment will lead to a method of removing smog from the atmosphere by causing moisture to form around smog particles, making them settle toward earth. Airborne instruments measure results and feed them to an IBM computer for analysis.

The 6-year-old Canadian mare goes after her ninth straight victory in the $50,000 United Nations Trot at Yonkers Raceway tonight against the same field she whipped in the $50,000 Gotham Trot a week ago.

The fact that the daughter of Hickory Pride-Pert Yankee has beaten the now retired Nevele Pride and France's Une De Mai in her string of victories as well as Upsallin, another highly touted French invader in the Gotham, has made her the odds-on choice to win the UN.

About the only thing that might lead to an upset is the possibility of a sloppy track because of heavy rains Thursday morning. It was sloppy for the 1½ miles of the UN last year and Fresh Yankee finished fourth to Earl Laird.

Some Russians Want to Ease Tension

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Soviet President Nikolai V. Podgorny talked tough to the United States in his Bolshevik anniversary speech, but the impression remains that some influential men in the Kremlin want to ease Soviet-American tension. One big reason could be the Soviet economy.

Moscow's press has provided evidence that a middle-of-the-road element in the leadership is seeking to concentrate more energy and resources on domestic welfare and that this is causing some political difficulty.

The regime is pressured on the one hand by a hungry military-industrial complex and on the other by impatient reformers and the rising demands of Soviet consumers. If it is going to turn to internal problems effectively, the Kremlin must satisfy the military that there is no major threat to the security of the Soviet Union and the Communist bloc.

Seemingly to reflect such pressure, Podgorny said Thursday that the talks on strategic arms limitation opening this month come at a time of urgent need for steps to end the momentum of the arms race.

"Huge resources spent on the arms drive could be transferred to peaceful means for increasing the welfare of the people of the world," he said.

Those expenditures also could place the Soviet Union in a better position for eventual concentration on political and economic competition with Americans around the world, rather than on a path of dangerous military competition. As of now, economic problems stand in the way of such a course.

Podgorny gave figures suggesting rising production in some fields, but also showing the gap between the Soviet and U.S. economies.

Podgorny gave no specifics for agriculture or consumer production. He said farm production, despite unfavorable weather, was "not bad," and probably better than the 1961-65 annual levels. In those years in some cases production was so poor that Moscow had to turn to Canada and elsewhere for grain.

Press comments on this year's outlook have been pessimistic.

Last month the Soviet press said nearly 36,000 industrial enterprises now operate on the "new system" begun in January 1966, and from these enterprises came 91 per cent of this year's "profits." The "new system" is a timid reform involving more local managerial discretion, incentive payments and cutting of costs, which means widespread firing of surplus labor. Despite good results, there is evidence of trouble in the obvious clashes with party doctrine.

Recently Mikhail Suslov, a hard-liner in the Politburo, growled in an article in the party journal Kommunist that reforms are permissible only within a strict framework of central planning. The suggestion is that there is a sharp division of opinion on how far economic reform can go.

The party is trying to increase local initiative and at the same time retain unquestioned central control. The two aims don't mesh. Almost two million Soviet planners at ministry and factory levels have stakes in the bureaucratic system. These inevitably get in the way of reform.

The dilemma thus posed can cause big headaches. To deal with them effectively, the Soviet leadership probably will want to create an atmosphere of security from the sort of international crisis that can inhibit any experimentation. Thus, the tough talk to Washington could be viewed in the light of jockeying for position at a bargaining table.

Missionary Baptist Meet

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The 1970 Arkansas Missionary Baptist meeting will be held at the Faith Baptist Church in North Little Rock.

Some Vietnam Units Shape for Combat

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four of South Vietnam's 10 regular army divisions have reached reasonably acceptable combat shape, according to U.S. military sources.

These officers said just a year ago only one ARVN division could be rated as at least good. They now rank the remaining six South Vietnamese divisions from marginal to poor.

U.S. authorities concede the South Vietnamese army has not yet been battle tested on a wide scale since the Nixon administration ordered a speed-up in the "Vietnamization" of the war.

The aim of that program is to prepare the South Vietnamese forces to replace U.S. ground combat units as soon as possible, so Americans may be withdrawn gradually.

"The ARVN is going to lose some battles, there are problems and there are some bad units, but the South Vietnamese are doing better," one civilian official said.

Last Monday, President Nixon reported progress in training the South Vietnamese forces has been greater than anticipated and that, as a result, the U.S. withdrawal timetable "is more optimistic now than when we made our first estimates in June."

American military sources said the South Vietnamese 1st division in the Northern I Corps and the 7th, 9th and 21st divisions in the Mekong River Delta are at least reasonably acceptable.

The U.S. officers who discussed current evaluations gave high marks to the South Vietnamese airborne troops and referred to 14 armored cavalry squadrons as "a real success story."

The armored cavalry, using M48 tanks and personnel carriers, have been conducting road security operations and serving as a battle reserve, these officers said.

Royal Thinks Rushers Had a Good Day

By JACK KEEVER
Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas coach Darrell Royal thought before the game that 300 yards rushing against SMU would have been a "pretty good day."

The second-ranked Longhorns shredded the Ponies for a fantastic 611 yards.

"It was pretty obvious," Royal told a news conference Monday that the four starters in the wishbone-T backfield had a good game.

"The whole line blocked well," Royal said in recalling the record-breaking Southwest Conference performance, but 221-pound junior tackle Bobby Wuensch was "the outstanding tackle."

Asked what set off Texas' explosion in the third quarter, Royal said, "We didn't get the crucial flag. We didn't get the crucial fumble. . . And, we started finding bigger holes."

But the so-called Longhorn machine was not without its rattles.

Royal said he was "bothered" by Texas' seven fumbles against SMU.

And, of course, there was the loss of 244-pound tackle Leo Brooks, who will have to undergo knee surgery after being whacked from the side as he charged SMU quarterback Chuck Hixson on a pass play.

Center Forrest Weiland also limped off with a hurt knee as injuries gnawed at the Longhorn depth. Starting linebackers Stan Mauldin and guard Bobby Mitchell already are ailing—"In too much pain"—to play from ankle and rib injuries.

"The people that are going to hurt us are those that throw," he said, looking ahead to four SWC games climaxed Dec. 6 with a national television game against Arkansas.

Brooks' sub, sophomore Carl White, "is not rushing the passer quite as well as we would like him to. . . but he handles the rush pretty well."

White, sophomore David Arledge and juniors Bill Atessing and Greg Poletz, who is still not in top shape after fracturing his ankle slightly against Oklahoma, will be mainly responsible for harrassing the passer as Texas prepares to meet Baylor's Steve Stuart, TCU's Steve Judy, Texas A&M's Rocky Self and Arkansas' fabulous Bill Montgomery.

Baylor—Texas' next opponent—is having problems in a 0-6 season, Royal said, "but then I look down that thing (roster) and see top-notch people," and, he added, "I have to expect them to come up with a super effort against us."

One reporter asked Royal if he had considered leaving his first team in longer in some games to run up the score and attract more national attention in the polls.

"The polls haven't had any bearing on our strategy...scoring more points...or anything," Royal replied.

In fact, he said, his first string looks at times a "little ragged by being inactive."

game. The Razorbacks are flying high with the return of their great pass-and-catch combination of Bill Montgomery to Chuck Dicus.

Rice holds a 25-17-2 all-time lead going into the Rice Stadium battle before an expected 35,000. Owl quarterback Stahle Vincent had no trouble with his sore elbow on last week's 24-14 loss to Texas Tech and is expected to log considerable playing time against the "Hogs," who are 3-0 and 6-0 for the year.

A&M leads overall 23-22-6 in the SMU series and a Mustang victory could get things alive. The oddsmakers say this is a "pick 'em" game.

A crowd of 32,000 is expected, SMU boasts the leading passer in the nation in Chuck Hixson and the SWC's leading rusher in 5-foot-6 Daryl Doggett. Texas A&M can't touch the Mustangs in passing but have rugged Larry Stagent to match Doggett's ground prowess.

All the SWC games are day affairs. The SMU-A&M tussle begins at 1:30 p.m. CST. The rest are 2 p.m. games.

Atlanta in Victory Over Chicago

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Atlanta Hawks nipped the Bulls 124-122 in a National Basketball game in Chicago Thursday night but most of the action came after the game.

A wild flurry of arguments erupted on whether the game-ending buzzer had sounded and Pat Williams, general manager of the Bulls, said he will file an official protest with NBA Commissioner Walter Kennedy.

In the only other NBA game, San Francisco crushed Cincinnati 130-109.

In the American Basketball Association, Pittsburgh beat Miami 133-127 and Kentucky overpowered Denver 145-119.

Lou Hudson of Atlanta tied the score 122-121 in the last 15 seconds and then hit two free throws on a foul called against Chet Walker to make the score 124-122.

With five seconds left, Chicago took the ball out of bounds and Clem Haskins fired a shot at the basket. Tom Boerwinkle leaped into the air and tapped the ball through the hoop with the clock showing one second to play.

Referee Bob Rakel ruled the basket didn't count because of the league rule stating no player other than the shooter can touch the ball if the final buzzer has sounded when the shot was made.

Rakel said he heard the final buzzer when Haskins let go. Jack Madden, the other official, said he didn't. Timekeeper James Seery said he told the referees the buzzer had not sounded and there was one second remaining and added he would repeat his contention to Kennedy if he's asked.

Breather Is Expected for Arkansas

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's supposed to be the weekend of the Big Breather for Texas and Arkansas, but there will be a lot of Texas Tech fans holding their breath in Fort Worth Saturday.

The bulldoggish Red Raiders are the only other club with a chance to squeeze into the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day. And with one Southwest Conference loss—Tech must win, win, win.

Tech, 3-1 in SWC play, meets fast-improving Texas Christian and its icy calm sophomore quarterback Steve Judy. The oddsmakers say TCU is a touch-down favorite.

Meanwhile, a second-ranked Texas hosts winless Baylor while fourth-ranked Arkansas travels to Houston to meet a green Rice team which is 0-3 in SWC play and 1-5 for the year.

Southern Methodist and Texas A&M hookup at College Station with their all-time series the only thing at stake. SMU is 2-2 while the Aggies are 1-3.

Texas Tech Coach J. T. King puts it this way in describing how the Red Raiders will have to play to beat the Horned Frogs: "We are going to have to play the best football game we've played this year—both offensively and defensively—if we hope to defeat TCU."

A homecoming crowd of 30,000 is expected in Amon Carter Stadium for the 26th meeting with TCU holding a 15-10 edge.

King has had success the past two weeks drawing good performances from quarterbacks Charles Napper and Joe Matulich. Danny Hardaway gives Tech thunder on the ground, flanker Johnny Odom is a tremendous ball hawk, and Jerry Don Sanders is a long distance threat for the field goal.

Judy is smashing TCU offensive records with his running and passing. Power runner Norman Bulach returned for limited action last week.

The oddsmakers won't even quote a point-spread on the Texas-Baylor fracas. A crowd of about 55,000 will sit in at Memorial Stadium for the 59th meeting of the schools. Texas leads by 43-11-4, including the last 11 in a row.

Texas suffered the loss of All-Southwest Conference defensive tackle Leo Brooks in the SMU game last week. Fullback Steve Worster had a fever this week but is expected to play.

Texas Coach Darrell Royal said "We expect a super effort against us. If they get a few breaks, then the fight's on. I know this: They fought Arkansas tooth and toenail and it was late in the third quarter before Arkansas broke a 7-7 tie."

The oddsmakers also refused to touch the Rice-Arkansas

game. The Razorbacks are flying high with the return of their great pass-and-catch combination of Bill Montgomery to Chuck Dicus.

Rice holds a 25-17-2 all-time lead going into the Rice Stadium battle before an expected 35,000. Chicago is the world's largest railroad center. It serves 41 lines and has six railroad stations.

The famous "Timothy Titcomb" letters were written by Josiah Gilbert Holland, American novelist.

Impala's hidden persuaders:

- 1 350-cu.-in. engine
A new more powerful standard 350-hp V8 makes the 1970 Impala move with all the ease and assurance. On good of regular gas.
- 2 Anti-theft column lock
A locking system is built right into the steering column. When you take your key with you, you lock not only your ignition but your steering wheel as well.
- 3 Aluminized exhaust system
It simply means that your original muffler, tailpipe and exhaust are going to last longer than you'd probably expect them to. Last enough?
- 4 Side guard beams
They look like highway guard rails, and they're built into both sides of the car for extra protection in case of impact. Not too many cars have them.
- 5 Inner fenders
Up inside every fender is another fender to protect against slush and mud and help keep your Impala looking young.
- 6 Flush and dry
We build the car so that rain and wash water can run down through the inside of the rocker panels, then out. Air follows to do the drying.
- 7 Full Coil suspension
Huge coil springs at all four wheels are four big reasons why a Chevrolet Impala rides smoother and quieter than a low-priced car has any right to.

Do Not Disturb

The children have been warned away from the armchair, the supplies have been stashed in the refrigerator, the room has been sealed off and everything awaits the football season. On television.

Perhaps we are beasts for surrendering those days off to the tube, letting the chores go, spurning all suggestions for a short drive, a picnic or a run to the store. Our best friend could even pass away and yet a funeral on a fall Saturday or Sunday afternoon would pass unnoted. "Do not disturb," we say.

It does no good to point out the parallel between our time and that of the Roman Empire, in its decline fed by bread and circuses. It does no good to say a tribute to violence in America. The ammunition to respond is at the ready: it is only a week-end pastime to us, while it was a daily duty to the Romans to enjoy, enjoy, and the advocates of violence, in all probability, are also huddled before their sets, bringing a momentary peace to the streets outside.

We wait. Pre-game commercial time creeps by at an incredibly slow speed. A tension fills the room. An excitement pursues the contest. And afterwards there comes the inevitable letdown, as we remember our place as spectator and not player, as we view the emptiness which follows the game.

It is a genre of fanatics. Womenfolk accuse us, intellectuals spurn us, the world outside is in its customary agony. We are beats and yet somehow at peace, for nothing better than football. It is a pleasant shame we feel. Please do not disturb.—Savannah (Ga.) Morning News

Comforting Information

There is a comforting bit of information relating to the youth rebellion which might have been lost in the floodtide of news on the subject. Fewer people, relatively speaking, are reaching age 21 now than in previous years. The downtrend will continue at least through 1975.

Meanwhile, today's young people will be moving up the age ladder and, following past patterns, calming down considerably.

With the presence of these two factors, the average age of the population will rise and, with it, the maturity of the average citizen.

The youth tide has already peaked at flood stage and its ebbing will renew the hope that society is going to survive after all, even if the older generation does have to stand on its toes a little longer to keep its head above water. — Wichita Falls (Tex.) Times

Late To Work

Tardiness in arriving at the scene of labor has become epidemic among white collar workers, according to a survey of employers. It has reached the point of defiance, according to one office manager, who attributes the trend to availability of jobs.

That supply and demand figures in this trend is apparent in a news item in the Wall Street Journal, which reports this problem is disappearing in brokerage houses since they started laying off employees because of the stock slump. — Monroe (La.) Morning World.

Inmate's Claim Is Dismissed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A $100,000 claim filed against the state by a former state Penitentiary inmate has been dismissed by the state Claims Commission.

Carter Doze of Little Rock filed the claim in which he said he was severely injured by a beating from a prison trustee.

Doze was serving a six-year sentence for forgery and uttering when the incident allegedly occurred in October 1964. He told the commission that he lost his left eye and use of his right hand and also suffered brain damage because of the beating by Milton Grundy Sr., a trustee.

Grundy, who has been paroled, testified that he hit Doze with a stick in self-defense after Doze made a motion at him with a knife he had been issued to cut okra.

Corporations Glance Again at Profits

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — A closer look at the corporate profit reports for the recently completed third quarter of the year shows a deterioration that wasn't easily noticed at first glance.

Many companies reported surprisingly good earnings. In fact, more than one-half of the big industrial blue chips that make up the widely used Dow Jones stock average reported increases over the April-May-June period.

The bad news for corporations, however, was revealed by their profit margins, or the percentage of net income to gross income. Sharp declines were evident throughout a long list of blue chip companies.

In fact, much of the earnings increases reported by some companies was nothing more than inflation, as pointed out by John Wright, an investment adviser and publisher of Wright Advisory Reports.

"Real profits," says Wright, "are now declining, although nominal earnings are up. Dollar earnings for the third quarter were 4.5 per cent ahead of a year ago, but inflation cut dollar power by 5 1/2 per cent."

The net result, Wright observes, is that many companies that reported earnings increases over a year ago actually had declines.

The profits deterioration shows most clearly by dividing total sales into net income. An analysis of 25 industry groupings, based on reports through Oct. 31, shows that only six improved their profit margins. The rest remained the same or declined, some of them very sharply.

A year ago, for example, eight printing and publishing companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange had an average profit margin of 6.07 per cent. This year the figure dropped to 5.09 per cent.

A study of incomes for 24 food companies show that profit margins in the third quarter of 1968 were around 4.5 per cent. This year the percentage deteriorated to 3.63.

Evidence of similar shrinkages can be found throughout industry, strong evidence that the government's slowdown program is being felt strongly, despite the illusion created by some seemingly healthy profit reports.

The impact might be even stronger than is evident from the profit margins. Some companies, for example, have maintained profits simply by raising prices, which is easy enough to do when inflation is at a 6 per cent rate.

The true picture of corporate profits, therefore, is likely to show up in poor fourth-quarter reports, scheduled to be released in late January and early February.

Finds Things Tough at Home When Wife Has Too Much Knowledge

By ROBERT H. REID
Associated Press Writer
CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — If a little knowledge is indeed a dangerous thing, too much of it is killing. Especially if you're a young, childless housewife who wants to do something besides stay home.

My wife, for instance. She heeded all those admonitions to "stay in school so you can get a good job," and stuck it out right through college.

Now she's probably smarter than me. But that's not what worries me most.

What worries me most is that she can't get a job.

She's too smart, the potential employers keep saying. They're afraid she'll be bored, or demand higher pay, or lead a demonstration for more coffee breaks (although she never does at home).

Just the other day she applied for a position at a local office of a national chemical company. The interviewer took one look at the space on the application marked "education" and muttered: "You have a degree?"

Then he mumbled something

Arkansan Dies in Texas Wreck

WAXAHACHIE, Tex. (AP) — An Arkansas woman died and four members of her family were injured after their car overturned on Interstate 35E near here Thursday.

Her husband, Air Force Maj. Bruce Caldwell, and three of her sons were hospitalized.

Poll Shows Public Wants No Tax Hike

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — "No. Absolutely not. And I mean that real definite."

This is the assessment of one member of the Arkansas Senate of his constituents' willingness to pay more taxes to improve state services.

While other senators replying to a poll by The Associated Press were less emphatic, almost all agreed that the voters weren't in a mood to pay higher taxes.

And the senators themselves expressed little willingness to increase them.

Of the 14 senators responding to the poll, only one, Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs, said he definitely thought his constituents would be willing to pay higher taxes to improve state services.

Asked, under present circumstances, if they would vote for any new taxes or to increase any existing taxes in the next six to 12 months, six senators replied no and seven gave a qualified no. The other senator, Hurst, said that under some circumstances he could vote for additional taxes.

He said the state needed money to raise salaries of state employees and teachers and to expand the Arkansas Children's Colony and several state agencies.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has been scouting the state looking for support of increased taxes. He says that if he finds that support he will ask the legislature in special session to enact a tax program.

Sen. John F. "Mutt" Gibson of Dermott summed up the feeling of several of those who gave a qualified no on whether they would vote for tax increases.

"I would have to be shown that there was a desperate, necessary need for additional revenue and I haven't been convinced of that so far," Gibson said.

Sen. Richard Earl Griffin of Crossett said he supported changes to make the tax structure more equitable, but he said a special session wasn't the time to do it.

Sen. Max Howell of Little Rock said he disapproved of a number of those who gave a qualified no on whether they would vote for tax increases.

Overnight lows around the state included 47 at Fayetteville, 48 at Jonesboro, 50 at Harrison, 55 at Pine Bluff and El Dorado, 52 at Blytheville, 58 at Texarkana and 45 at Memphis and Little Rock.

No rain was reported for the 24-hour period ending at 7 a.m. today.

School Suits at McNeil, Lewisville

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two federal court suits seeking desegregation of schools at McNeil (Columbia County) and Lewisville (Lafayette County) were mailed Tuesday, a Little Rock lawyer said.

The attorney, Philip E. Kaplan, said the suits will be filed when received by federal courts. The McNeil suit was mailed to federal court at El Dorado, the Lewisville suit to federal court at Texarkana.

Kaplan said McNeil maintained two schools, one black and the other an overcrowded integrated building.

He said Lewisville had one all-black school and one desegregated school.

Each suit asks for immediate unification of the schools, Kaplan said.

U.S. Still Seeking Private Peace Talks With Red Negotiators

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials still intend to seek private peace talks with Communist negotiators in Paris if the time comes when they feel secrecy might accomplish something. At present they don't think it would make any difference.

Evidently it was because secrecy contributed nothing to the negotiations earlier this year that President Nixon decided to disclose in his Monday night speech 11 private meetings had been held in Paris—and were part of the record of stalemate in the talks since he took office.

Nixon's statement departed from his own stated policy about not disclosing even the fact of secret talks.

The disclosure became an issue in Paris Thursday when Hanoi's Ambassador Xuan Thuy charged it broke a promise made by U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge last March 8.

Xuan Thuy used the charge to publicize a broader accusation that "American representatives do not keep their promises even for little things."

A U.S. spokesman in Paris called Xuan Thuy's attack an insult and ridiculous.

Both sides in Paris also said secret talks could still be used and there was no doubt among officials here they would be if and when the peace talks begin to move.

President Nixon called for "private talks" in the early

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government officials who refused to issue a permit for a mass march to protest the Vietnam war admit they have not read a report contending a similar rejection helped trigger violence during the 1968 Democratic convention.

Pleasant Weekend Forecast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Weekend weather should be pleasant for Arkansans.

The U. S. Weather Bureau is forecasting fair to partly cloudy weather and mild days and cool nights. The slightly warmer temperatures and fair weather are due to a weak pressure system influencing the state's weather. With little moisture available aloft, no rain is forecast.

Overnight lows around the state included 47 at Fayetteville, 48 at Jonesboro, 50 at Harrison, 55 at Pine Bluff and El Dorado, 52 at Blytheville, 58 at Texarkana and 45 at Memphis and Little Rock.

No rain was reported for the 24-hour period ending at 7 a.m. today.

El Dorado Boys Club Is Sued

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — The El Dorado United Campaign Fund and the El Dorado Boys Club have 10 days in which to respond to charges of racial discrimination.

U. S. District Court Judge Oren Harris issued the order Thursday in a suit filed November 1968 by a group of El Dorado Negroes. The suit contends that the United Fund discriminated in its dispensation of money and that the Boys Club operated in a discriminatory manner.

Philip Kaplan of Little Rock attorney for the plaintiffs, did not appear at the hearing and Harris gave the plaintiffs another five days to file briefs.

Week-long Countdown Is Started

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Electrical power surged into a giant Saturn 5 rocket today as the launch team began the week-long countdown for Apollo 12, man's second moon-landing mission.

The countdown clock started right on schedule at noon EST, 167 hours 38 minutes from scheduled liftoff at 11:22 a.m. next Friday.

In addition to 98 hours of countdown, four automatic holds totaling more than 69 hours were programmed for rest by the launch team and for dealing with possible problems.

As the countdown started, launch director Walter Kapryan reported all launch preparations were proceeding smoothly.

The three astronauts, Charles Conrad Jr., Richard F. Gordon Jr. and Alan L. Bean, planned several hours today in command ship and lunar lander

Impeachment of Douglas Considered

WASHINGTON (AP) — A number of Republican House members are considering bringing impeachment proceedings against Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, Rep. Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., said today.

Ford, leader of his party in the House, said no decision has yet been reached whether to offer an impeachment resolution. "It would be premature," Ford said, replying to questions relayed through his office.

"At this stage it is a preliminary staff operation. . . . We are reviewing all the facts in the case."

A spokesman for Douglas said he would have no comment at all.

Ford said that, so far as he is concerned, the decision should not depend on whether the Senate confirms or rejects President Nixon's nomination of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth to the Supreme Court.

But he added that if Haynsworth is rejected on ethical standards, "then the same standards should be applied to all members of the Supreme Court."

Douglas has been under fire because of his service, which he ended this year, as a salaried officer of the Parvin Foundation of Los Angeles, which received some funds from gambling interests.

Ford said recent additional disclosures about the Foundation and businesses associated with it inspired the new Republican effort.

SAIGON (AP) — An estimated 100 Viet Cong guerrillas have assaulted government outposts defending Saigon for the first time in 18 months, while other enemy forces made rocket and mortar attacks across the country.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. military sources say four of South Vietnam's 10 regular army divisions have reached reasonably acceptable combat shape, as compared with only one division so ranked a year ago.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders, Democrat Mike Mansfield and Republican Hugh Scott, both previously critical of U.S. war policy, are sponsoring a resolution supporting President Nixon's efforts to end the war.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed without dissent what one member calls the "biggest consumer victory of the year," a bill to protect the public against arbitrary and erroneous credit reports.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Consumer advocate Ralph Nader charges that President Nixon's proposed consumer legislation "is farcical in part and deceptive in the remainder."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three labor unions have agreed to build low-cost prefabricated homes on an assembly line basis in what the government calls a major start in overcoming the nation's housing shortage.

BOSTON (AP) — An unidentified body and an empty motor life boat have been found as the search continues for 36 men stranded when a Liberian tanker broke apart during a storm Wednesday.

Marine Jailed After Threat of Hijacking

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An 18-year-old Marine was jailed here Thursday after he allegedly told a Delta Airlines employee that he was going to hijack a plane to Siberia.

Herbert E. Hoxie, special agent in charge of the Little Rock office of the FBI, said Marine Pfc. Damon Charles Jeffrey, of Piggott was charged with conveying false information to an airline employee.

Jeffrey insisted he was joking, but Asst. U. S. Atty. Walter G. Riddick of Little Rock said the federal statute covers "jokes."

"It was the wrong week for an 18-year-old Marine to say he was going to hijack a plane," Riddick said.

Jeffrey was to report back to Camp Lejeune, N.C. Oct. 31, but Monday reported to Marine Corps authorities at Jonesboro. He was on orders to report to the camp for allegedly being AWOL.

36 Are Still Missing in Tanker Search

BOSTON (AP) — An unidentified body and an empty motor life boat with the name "Keo" on it were recovered Thursday night about 8 miles southeast of the area where the 629-foot Liberian tanker Keo broke apart Wednesday in a storm and its 36 men were stranded on the stern.

A Coast Guard spokesman said this morning the body was recovered by the USS Fox during an intensive search of 20,000 miles of ocean off Nantucket.

"The chances are that if they are found now they will be in lifeboats or on rafts," a Coast Guard officer said.

Employment Edges Up in October

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's total employment edged up in October to an all-time high of 80.6 million, on a seasonally adjusted basis, and unemployment declined slightly following the big jump of a month before, the government said today.

But the average work week, overtime work and average pay all declined, signaling a possible economic turnaround later, said Asst. Commissioner Harold Goldstein of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The total number of unemployed last month dropped about 119,000 and the national jobless rate dropped from 4 per cent to 3.9 per cent of the civilian labor force. The bureau adjusts the figures in line with usual seasonal employment changes.

The jobless total in October included 906,000 men for a 2.4 per cent unemployment rate, 1.1 million women for a 4 per cent rate and 836,000 teen-agers for a 13 per cent rate.

Goldstein said the significance of the figures was the increase of 525,000 unemployed since last December, when the jobless rate was at a post-Korean war low of 3.3 per cent.

Russellville Prosecutors Return Fees

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Two Pope County prosecutors who say they have received $350 in fees from Pope County Circuit Court criminal cases in which the defendants received suspended sentences have returned the money to the Pope County Circuit Clerk.

John Harris of Russellville and William R. Bullock of Dardanelle asked Circuit Clerk Reese Caudle to hold the funds "and all like fees accruing in the future until this matter has been fully resolved by a court of competent jurisdiction."

The Yell-Pope County Bar Association adopted a resolution last week calling for an audit to determine whether excessive costs and fees had been assessed in criminal cases handled in Circuit Court in Pope County. The group also said it should be determined whether costs and fees had been "unlawfully distributed to the detriment of the Pope County General Fund."

Prosecutor Jeff Mobley said a felony defendant who receives a suspended sentence in the court of Circuit Judge Russell Roberts is assessed $120. Mobley said $50 of the fee goes to the deputy prosecutor, $25 to the circuit clerk, $25 to the sheriff's office and $20 to the court reporter.

Harris and Bullock said that since they had been appointed earlier this year, they had handled seven such cases.

"It appears that a disagreement has developed as to the legality of the court costs ordered by the circuit judge," they said in a letter to Caudle. "Therefore, we are tendering back to you for deposit and safekeeping all fees received by us as deputy prosecuting attorneys from the court costs accordingly assessed."
